15-17-10-2. Owners and caretakers of animals — Duties.

An owner or a caretaker of an animal and the owner’s or a caretaker’s agents shall provide reasonable assistance that is required to enable the state veterinarian, the state veterinarian’s authorized agent, or an agent of the United States Department of Agriculture to perform the state veterinarian’s or agent’s duties.

Cruelty Provisions

35-46-3-5. Applicability of chapter — Exempt activities — Authorization for destruction of animal by electrocution.

- (a) Except as provided in subsections (b) through (c), this chapter does not apply to the following:
- (1) Fishing, hunting, trapping, or other conduct authorized under IC 14-22.
 - (2) Conduct authorized under IC 15-20-2.
 - (3) Veterinary practices authorized by standards adopted under IC 25-38.1-2-14.
 - (4) Conduct authorized by a local ordinance.
 - (5) Acceptable farm management practices.
 - (6) Conduct authorized by IC 15-17, and rules adopted under IC 15-17 for state or federally inspected livestock slaughtering facilities and state or federal animal disease control programs.
 - (7) A research facility registered with the United States Department of Agriculture under the federal Animal Welfare Act (7 U.S.C. 2131 et seq.).
 - (8) Destruction of a vertebrate defined as a pest under IC 15-16-5-24.
 - (9) Destruction of or injury to a fish.
 - (10) Destruction of a vertebrate animal that is:
 - (A) endangering, harassing, or threatening livestock or a domestic animal; or
 - (B) destroying or damaging a person's property.
 - (11) Destruction of an animal by an animal control program, including an animal control facility, an animal shelter, or a humane society.
 - (12) Destruction of an injured or ill animal by an individual to prevent the animal from prolonged suffering.
 - (13) Conduct not resulting in serious injury or illness to the animal that is incidental to exhibiting an animal for show, competition, or display, or that is incidental to transporting the animal for show, competition, or display.
 - (14) Parking an animal.
 - (15) Humane destruction of an animal that the person owns.
- (b) Section 1 [IC 35-46-3-1] of this chapter applies to conduct described in subsection (a).
- (c) Destruction of an animal by electrocution is authorized under this section only if it is conducted by a person who is engaged in an acceptable farm management practice, by a research facility registered with the United States Department of Agriculture under the Animal Welfare Act, or for the animal disease diagnostic laboratory established under IC 21-46-3-1, a research facility licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture, a college, or a university.

35-46-3-6. Applicability — Impoundment of animal — Posting bond to recover animal — Investigation by state veterinarian — Additional penalties — Termination of right to possession.

- (a) This section does not apply to a violation of section 1 [IC 35-46-3-1] of this chapter.
- (b) Any law enforcement officer or any other person having authority to impound animals who has probable cause to believe there has been a violation of this chapter or IC 15-20-1-4 may take custody of the animal involved.
- (c) The owner of an animal that has been impounded under this section may prevent disposition of the animal by an animal shelter that is caring for the animal by posting, not later than ten (10) days after the animal has been impounded, a bond with the court in an amount sufficient to provide for the animal's care and keeping for at least thirty (30) days, beginning from the date the animal was impounded. The owner may renew a bond by posting a new bond, in an amount sufficient to provide for the animal's care and keeping for at least an additional thirty (30) days, not later than ten (10) days after the expiration of the period for which a previous bond was posted. If a bond expires and is not renewed, the animal shelter may determine disposition of the animal, subject to court order. If the owner of an animal impounded under this section is convicted of an offense under this chapter or IC 15-20-1-4, the owner shall reimburse the animal shelter for the expense of the animal's care and keeping. If the owner has paid a bond under this subsection, the animal shelter may euthanize an animal if a veterinarian determines that an animal is suffering extreme pain.

(d) If the owner requests, the court having jurisdiction of criminal charges filed under this chapter or IC 15-20-1 shall hold a hearing to determine whether probable cause exists to believe that a violation of this chapter or IC 15-20-1 has occurred. If the court determines that probable cause does not exist, the court shall order the animal returned to its owner, and the return of any bond posted by its owner.

(e) Whenever charges are filed under this chapter, the court shall appoint the state veterinarian under IC 15-17-4-1 or the state veterinarian's designee to:

- (1) investigate the condition of the animal and the circumstances relating to the animal's condition; and
- (2) make a recommendation to the court under subsection (f) regarding the confiscation of the animal.

(f) The state veterinarian or the state veterinarian's designee who is appointed under subsection (e) shall do the following:

- (1) Make a recommendation to the court concerning whether confiscation is necessary to protect the safety and well-being of the animal.
- (2) If confiscation is recommended under subdivision (1), recommend a manner for handling the confiscation and disposition of the animal that is in the best interests of the animal.

The state veterinarian or the state veterinarian's designee who submits a recommendation under this subsection shall articulate to the court the reasons supporting the recommendation.

(g) The court:

- (1) shall give substantial weight to; and
- (2) may enter an order based upon; a recommendation submitted under subsection (f).

(h) If a person is convicted of an offense under this chapter or IC 15-20-1, the court may impose the following additional penalties against the person:

- (1) A requirement that the person pay the costs of caring for an animal involved in the offenses that are incurred during a period of impoundment authorized under subsection (b).
- (2) An order terminating or imposing conditions on the person's right to possession, title, custody, or care of:
 - (A) an animal that was involved in the offense; or
 - (B) any other animal in the custody or care of the person.

(i) If a person's right to possession, title, custody, or care of an animal is terminated under subsection (h), the court may:

- (1) award the animal to a humane society or other organization that has as its principal purpose the humane treatment of animals; or
- (2) order the disposition of the animal as recommended under subsection (f).

35-46-3-7. Abandonment or neglect of vertebrate animal —

Defense.

(a) A person who:

(1) has a vertebrate animal in the person's custody; and

(2) recklessly, knowingly, or intentionally abandons or neglects the animal;

commits cruelty to an animal, a Class A misdemeanor. However, except for a conviction under section 1 [IC 35-46-3-1] of this chapter, the offense is a Level 6 felony if the person has a prior unrelated conviction under this chapter.

(2) an animal of the bovine, equine, ovine, caprine, porcine, canine, feline, camelid, cervidae, or bison species.

A person who knowingly or intentionally kills a domestic animal without the consent of the owner of the domestic animal commits killing a domestic animal, a Level 6 felony.

(e) It is a defense to a prosecution under this section that the accused person:

(1) reasonably believes the conduct was necessary to:

(A) prevent injury to the accused person or another person;

(B) protect the property of the accused person from destruction or substantial damage; or

(C) prevent a seriously injured vertebrate animal from prolonged suffering; or

(2) engaged in a reasonable and recognized act of training, handling, or disciplining the vertebrate animal.

(f) When a court imposes a sentence or enters a dispositional decree under this section, the court:

(1) shall consider requiring:

(A) a person convicted of an offense under this section; or

(B) a child adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that would be a crime under this section if committed by an adult;

to receive psychological, behavioral, or other counseling as a part of the sentence or dispositional decree; and

(2) may order an individual described in subdivision (1) to receive psychological, behavioral, or other counseling as a part of the sentence or dispositional decree.
